Arrival - Sossusvlei

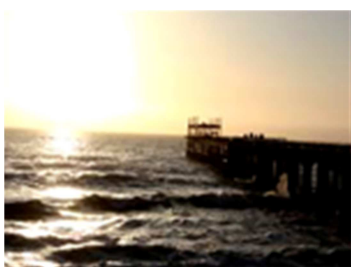

Arriving at Windhoek International Airport in the early morning you take over your rental vehicle or meet your guide and proceed directly to the oldest desert of the world, the Namib. Day 5 Swakopmund - Windhoek/Departure

Unfortunately your glance has come to an end and it is time to drive back to Windhoek. In Okahandja you should take the time to have a look at the lovely artwork carved into wood and stone and maybe you find just the right souvenir or present here at the woodcarvers market. Reaching International airport you return your vehicle and check in for your flight. If the first glance was too short for your taste or you would love to rather do game viewing than seeing the Sossusvlei there is no struggle arranging a short tour for this either. You say what you would like to do and we organize it for you.
